

Dragon Kingdom
Social Story – English Version

Last Updated 4/1/2024

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

This visual guide is meant to help young guests, guest with disabilities and their families plan their visit through Dragon Kingdom at the Little Rock Zoo. It is designed to be printed and arranged in an order that supports you during your zoo visit. Simply remove any pages that do not apply to you. The pages for snack and break can be dispersed anywhere in the story, and you can print more than one if needed!

Once you have arranged your social story, we suggest reading it a few times before your visit. This will help you know what to expect and have a better visit.

We hope you have a magical time meeting our friendly dragons at the Little Rock Zoo!

Barriers & Fences

As you explore Dragon Kingdom, you'll notice barriers around the dragon habitats. It's important to remember not to cross these barriers. They are there to keep both you and the dragons safe.

Entering Dragon Kingdom

The entrance to Dragon Kingdom is located across from Café Africa. Along the paths leading to the bear habitats and next to the Bear and Otter habitats, you'll find several dragons waiting to say hello!

Meet the Friendly Dragon

Keep an eye out for the Friendly Dragon! She loves meeting new friends and might even tell you a story if you spend some time with her.

Excitement & Greetings

Our dragons are thrilled to see you! You might hear them roar or see them flap their wings in excitement as you approach them. It's their way of saying hello!

We hope you have a magical time meeting our friendly dragons at the Little Rock Zoo!

Dragon Trainers

Taking care of dragons is no easy task, but luckily, we have our amazing Dragon Trainers! They're friendly faces who can tell you all about these magnificent beasts. Feel free to ask them any questions you have!